mighty Spirit of our Lord;
give new strength to our believing,
give us faith to live your word,
give us faith to live your word.

In our call to be a blessing,
may we be a blessing true;
you have loved us as your own;
may we live and die confessing
Christ as Lord of all we do,
Christ as Lord of all we do.

Call to Worship

One: Though we know where this journey leads,
we walk unafraid, for you are here God.
You are the steps we follow in the sand.
You are the brightness of the sun warming us.
You are the gentle urging of new life amidst decay.
You are the patient promise of a new day.

Be with us in this time of worship,
that we may learn to recognize your voice beyond these walls.

Prayer of Confession

adapted from a prayer

copyright © Clare McBeath & Tim Presswood, 2007

One: Incarnate God, God beside us,
God within us,
For the times we've hurt you

All: Forgive us

One: For the times we've hurt others

All: Forgive us

One: For the times we've hurt ourselves

All: Forgive us

One: For we are made in your image and it is very good.

Silence

Words of Assurance and Lord's Prayer (sung VU 959)

One: In your declaration of goodness, God of love,
you have set both hope and challenge before us.
You yearn for goodness to prevail
throughout all creation.
Remind us that we are not alone
in this overwhelming work,
for we share our journey with one who sings:

All: Our Father, in heaven, hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread,
and forgive us our sins,

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil

For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

MUSIC
Notes

“Song 13”, the melody used for today’s offertory, was written by the English composer Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625). He started his musical career at the age of 13 when he joined the choir of King’s College (Cambridge). He received his Bachelor of Music degree from Cambridge University in 1606 and his Doctor of Music from Oxford University in 1622. A favourite court musician he was appointed organist for the Chapel Royal in 1615 by Prince Charles (later King Charles I), a position he held until his death. He was also appointed organist for Westminster Abbey in 1623. A prolific composer of anthems, madrigals and keyboard works, he wrote Song 13 in 1623. It was published in “Hymnes and Songs of the Church” as song 13, hence its name. Today it is published in 80 hymnals around the world using 30 different texts. Canadian pianist Glenn Gould named Gibbons as his favourite composer saying “ever since my teenage years his music... has moved me more deeply than any other sound experience.”
